

Internship at Biofruit, trading/marketing international sector in Berlin, Germany

Biofruit is a small German company, upcoming and dynamic. Since 2001 with enduring experience in the citrus fruit field, Biofruit has been specialised in the commercialisation of the Washington Navel oranges from Ribera di Sicilia (Ribera, Sicily, Italy) under the PDO name (Protected Designation of Origin) and mark "Riberella". Other citrus fruits (strictly of Italian origin) complete the range of Biofruit produce. These come from both integrated and organic production.
